

Erin is from Winston-Salem, NC and received a Bachelor's of Science degree in Psychology from High Point University in 2020. After graduating, Erin joined Mental Health Greensboro as their Youth Peer Support Coordinator and is a North Carolina Certified Peer Support Specialist. Being passionate about working with youth in the local community, Erin has volunteered extensively with Camp HOPE through the Guilford County Family Justice Center and Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Central Piedmont. In her spare time, Erin enjoys hiking local trails with her golden retriever, exploring coffee shops, attending seasonal festivals, and taking road trips to the beach.
