

A native of Pennsylvania, Sue has lived in Greensboro for over 30 years, and considers Greensboro her home. She earned her B.S. degree in Business Administration from UNC-Greensboro and then her MSW degree from the Joint Masters of Social Work program at UNC-G/NCA&T. Sue brings over 16 years of experience, working at Family Service of the Piedmont with programs dedicated to reducing child abuse and neglect. She obtained her Licensed Clinical Social Worker designation as well as Clinical Social Work Supervision Certificate and has provided supervision to LCSW-A's for the past 13 years. In addition to her work with individuals, children and families, she has been an adjunct professor with the JMSW program. She maintained a private practice as well, working with clients experiencing trauma, grief, depression and anxiety.