

Terri Spears, MS, M.Ed., LCAS, NCCPSS, joined the Kellin Foundation July 2022 as our Peer Support Specialist Supervisor. A Greensboro native, Terri received her undergraduate degree in Psychology from Appalachian State University and her master's degrees in Counselor Education and in Education Administration from NC A&T State University. After 25 years' experience in public education as a School Counselor and Administrator, Terri became a Licensed Clinical Addiction Specialist and worked as a Substance Use Disorder therapist in both primary and family counseling at a local treatment center. Terri then served as Coordinator of Spartan Recovery, a collegiate recovery program at UNC Greensboro. Terri is the author/owner of Recovery Can Happen, a NC approved peer support specialist training curriculum and has enjoyed training locally and across the state.

Terri enjoys spending time with her husband of nearly 40 years, their children and grandchildren, being outdoors, walking, reading and the beach!
